Spotlight on Learning: Becoming Agents of Change Conference

What it means to be literate in the 21st Century is about much more than just reading and writing- it is about how we communicate in society and how we prepare for a changing world.

The Spotlight on Learning: Becoming Agents of Change conference is a Canada-East initiative to help Canadians prepare for these changes. The conference brings over 400 leaders from literacy, education, government and business together to learn, network and set an agenda for literacy in the 21st century.

For more information, download the Tradeshow and Sponsorship guide attached with this email or visit the Spotlight on Learning webpage at www.on.literacy.ca/spotlightonlearning/sponsor

Funding Opportunities

Service Canada - Call For Proposal for New Horizons for Seniors - Capital Assistance.

The New Horizons for Seniors program helps to ensure seniors are able to benefit from and contribute to the quality of life in their community through their social participation and active living. Capital Assistance funding helps non profit organizations that need to upgrade their facilities or equipment for existing senior's programs. This will enable seniors to continue to lead active lives. Capital assistance funding is grant funding of up to $25,000 for projects directly benefiting seniors. The deadline for applications is October 8, 2010.
